Re: United States of America vs. Joey D. Clark

Case: 2:07-CR-00077-PMP-RJJ

Case: 2:03-CR-00214-PMP-LRL

Dear Honorable Judge Pro,

I am writing you with hopes that the District Court will intervene and bring closure to my situation? As you are aware I have been writing the court periodically since 2009. The "BOP" continues to execute my sentences as consecutive when Your honor sentenced me to concurrent sentences and the signed plea agreement was for concurrent sentences. Even after the "BOP" I.S.M. "B. Serrato" contacted your courts chamber and spoke with the courts clerk (Darlene) they are still reluctant to change my sentence and award me the proper prior jail credit. I have no options at this point, I have filed a "2241" in the U.S. District court of Tucson. Even so, this is a process that will not be expedited and it will cause me and my family a great amount of harm. There is no ordered time frame so a decision could take years, a review of your honors record will show that my statutory release should be in the 3rd or 4th month of 2012. In essence I will end up doing more time then I am actually sentenced to. My mother has tried to come to your honors court room and she wasn't granted access. Both of my parents no longer have the luxury of their youth and great health, I am begging the court for help? If I was to lose one of my parents or both of my parents because I am in a prison when I shouldn't be would prove to be a very traumatic situation for me mentally. My children continue to have no father present and I know that has a psychological effect on them as well. I have paid for my crimes and I only ask the court to restore my freedom and afford me the opportunity to regain the trust of my community and my loved ones. Thank you for any consideration.
